

Hospitality Can Change the World

Koreans who became world changers through hospitality.

Who was Sargent Carl Powers?

- He was stationed in Korea during the Korean war.
- He asked one of the boys who was taking care of him if he would like to come and study in America. The boy said no – one of his reasons was that he didn't want to leave and never see his mother again. But his mother gave permission for him to go.
- Sargent Carl Powers took care of the boy while he was in America.
- After studying in America, he returned to Korea and became a famous evangelist. Do you know who student was?

Billy Kim

Here Billy Kim is presenting alongside Billy Graham in Korea.

FOREWORD BY RICK WARREN

the
L I F E
of
B I L L Y
K I M

From Houseboy to World Evangelist

Who is Libba Patterson?

- Hosted a Korean student in her home. The international student told her that he wanted to become a politician.
- She became like a mother to him and especially encouraged him to study hard.
- This international student became the eighth Secretary-General of the United Nations.
- Do you know who this student was?

Ban-ki Moon

Ban-ki Moon visits Libba Patterson.

